Electronic cigarettes or e cigarettes are the best alternative to traditional tobacco cigarettes. The look and feel of electronic cigarette is just like a real one and even it produces the same smoking effects without affecting your lungs. These cigarettes are free of all 4000+ chemicals and contain pure nicotine. Therefore, a smoker receives nicotine hit, every time he inhales it. These cigarettes are safe way of smoking and can be used in public places. It is very difficult to find a place outside where you can smoke without restrictions, but with these cigarettes, you can ignore the "NO Smoking" sign board.

How does an e cigarette works?

Electronic cigarettes are made of three main parts i.e. battery, atomizer, cartridge and when all these parts are combined together, they forms a shape of a real cigarette. It will be better to know about these parts to understand the working of these cigarettes.

• Battery- A battery is rechargeable, made up of lithium with a built in sensor. Because of a sensor, battery starts working automatically as soon as a smoker inhales.

• Atomizer- An atomizer given in a cigarette contains a coil which is used to vapourise an e-liquid.

• Cartridge- A cartridge given in a cigarette contains an e-liquid which is used for the purpose of producing smoke.

Why electronic cigarettes are better?

An electronic cigarette was invented in the year 2001 by a Chinese pharmacist Hon Lik. It has proved to be a revolutionary product and its demand increased drastically in the past few years. There are many advantages of using it for example, it doesn't contain any harmful chemical, it is a battery operated product and can be used again and again, a single cartridge can last upto 300 puffs which is almost equivalent to 30 traditional cigarettes. On the whole we can say that you will not only keep your health good but you will be saving a lot with these cigarettes. You can drop your monthly expenses upto 75%.

If you want to quit smoking, start using iCig e-cigarettes. It is a premium brand that offers the widest range of electronic cigarettes and flavoured cartridges. You can even choose the percentage of nicotine hit in a cigarette that varies from ultra light to hard nicotine hit. Smoking with traditional cigarette will cause you several severe problems. Therefore, stop playing with your life as it may be precious to others also. Visit iCig website to know more about our product range and place your order there.
