Tresor Paris bracelets are just not any accessories but an item useful for the wearer's fitness. They are both attractive to look at and are available at attractive prices. Hardly people can avoid wearing such ornaments for their charming and unique designs. It is seen that celebrities prefer wearing them, as they are exquisite and come in attractive colors. You will find this bracelet fabricated with crystals and magnetite in a range of hues, which captures the rainbow colors.

You must be keen to know about the health-giving benefits provided by the Tresor Paris bracelets. These magnetic jewelries work on the theory of confining the electro-magnetic field of any wearer's body, then re-calibrates its wave lengths in order to reduce the pain and inflammation, skin complaints, asthma and other health problems. All these issues have been rightly judged and were benefited by wearing the magnetite jewelry as planned by Tresor Paris. To be precise, such health benefits have been thought to be better when crystal is united with magnetite.

Study says that Magnetic trinkets can either be manufactured from synthetic magnet called "hermatite" or may be from the natural magnetic rock. A large amount of such finest quality magnetite is been obtained straight from South Africa's rock strata. The properties present in the natural magnetite stops it from misleading its magnetic behaviors, unlike those synthetic magnetites whose magnetic traits diminishes with time. Keep a close eye to watch what the synthetic and natural stones do for the well being of a human body. Both of them emit medicinal electro-magnetic properties to the wearer. This high-grade natural magnetite is used to create the Tresor Paris bracelets.

Wearing bracelets from Tresor Paris, those made from magnetite and crystal creation not only increase the chance to achieve better health but provides a visual pleasure as well. The market has a wide range of such jewelries to provide like Ladies Orion, Neptune, Hermes, Venus, Moon and so on. If you are looking for bracelets having aesthetic appeal then the Monaco bracelet will be the ideal one. This ornament has nine white crystals and two magnetite stones strung jointly into a woven plan with a black cord. You can also try the Paris style, which has a set of 9 rich blue crystals set at the center of black cord.
