Denia should be visited in vacations by James Avery

Article published on February 14th 2012 | Travel

Denia is at a distance of 85 kilometers from Alicante in Spain. It is exactly located on Costa Blanca towards the north east direction of Alicante. Denia is having a small population as only 29000 people live in it. Denia should be visited in vacations because it is full of attraction and entertainment for its visitors. Denia has a good income from tourism for the same reasons.

There are many sightseeing places in Denia. Castillo in Denia was built around 12th century which is worth seeing and it gives wonderful views of city and the sea to its visitors. Museo Etnologico is the best museum of Denia when it comes to its history. The best place for shopping in Denia is Calle de Marques de Campo. There are some excellent golf courses in the area for golf lovers. The harbour of Denia is very famous because it has good connections to various places through ferries. Denia has a huge fishing fleet which is another reason of its fame in Spain.

The best way to reach Denia is by road. A great sightseeing road along Costa Blanca famous as AP7 highway is best in that regard. Denia can be approached by Railway which is another convenient way. There are many hotels available in Denia with good facilities. One can easily find cheap places for staying in Denia while on the tour. Apart from that there are many restaurants that offer some tasty meals to their customers. The bakeries of Denia are famous for cakes, sweets and many other tasty products.

The weather of Denia resembles with Madrid a bit. Temperature reaches 40 degree centigrade in summer months. Similarly the minimum temperature in Denia reaches five degree Celsius in winter months. That means visiting the city in any season is comfortable. People that take cars on rent while on their tour to Denia feel more comfortable because they get a good chance to visit many places in and around the city. However public railway taxis and buses are also available for tourists.

In recent years the city has developed many folds. Many new apartments and buildings were built in the city and lots of construction work along the coastal area is still under progress. The size of the city is increasing rapidly in that manner and so is the fame of the city. We can expect Denia to be among the bigger cities of Spain in coming times.
