

Article Side

Johannesburg - Top Travel Tips for Finding Cheap Airfares by Kevin Thomas

Article published on February 11th 2012 | Travel

Johannesburg being a commercial hub of South Africa boasts of many shopping malls located in different parts of its territory. The shops in the malls offer varieties of goods ranging from clothes, books, music to chemists. Most of them also consist of western-styled supermarkets and food halls where eating joints of famous brands are found. The Flights to Johannesburg travelers can also watch their favorite movies in the multiplexes situated here. Also having parking facilities, the shopping malls provide convenient shopping facilities to its visitors.

The Oriental Plaza situated near the Newtown mosque is a good place for bargaining. It consists of 360 independently owned stores. The plaza also has historical significance as 100 years ago the famous pass burning ceremony by Mahatma Gandhi was organized a block away from here. The 44 Stanley shopping mall located in Milpark is different from the regular shopping malls. It is a blend of old architecture and modern trends. The mall consists of former industrial buildings connected by courtyards and is also home to around to 25 boutiques, restaurants and creative studios. It is a center of urban regeneration project and the travelers of cheap flights to johannesburg visit this mall in large numbers. the Northgate shopping center, though being small in size is a center of recreational activities such as movies, paintball and ice skating and weekend entertainment for children. Situated next to the Coca-Cola Dome the customers of Johannesburg flights visit this mall to take a break from the busy city life. The Westgate shopping mall on the other hand was earlier for many years a working-class mall with very less publicity. It was recently modernized and has thus gained popularity among foreign visitors. Situated far away from many tourist hot spots, it is now home to many major chain stores.

The Cresta Mall is a popular shopping and socializing destination among the middle-class population residing in Central Johannesburg. The mall consists of branches of major chain stores and some good family restaurants. Also the Rosebank mall situated between the Bath and Cradock Aves is a famous shopping destination. Its famous Sunday Rooftop Flea Market and the excellent African Craft Market attract many shopaholics that use the time saving services of direct flights to Johannesburg .the other shopping malls worth visiting in Johannesburg are Sandton City, Bedford Centre, Eastgate, Southgate and Fourways Mall. Located in different parts of the city they provide varied and convenient shopping options to their visitors. Many smaller shopping malls located near residential areas and consisting of retail stores, smaller chain stores, fast food restaurant or coffee shops can also be found in the city. Johannesburg travel tips available on the internet and also in the form of brochures and maps provide sufficient information on the various shopping destinations of the city.

Article Source:

<http://www.articleside.com/travel-articles/johannesburg-top-travel-tips-for-finding-cheap-airfares.htm>
- Article Side

Kevin Thomas - About Author:

Kevin thomas is a specialist content writer at a flights to johannesburg for business development. If you want to know about a johannesburg flights booking then you must visit a direct johannesburg flights.

Article Keywords:

Flights to Johannesburg, cheap flights to Johannesburg, Johannesburg flights, direct flights to Johannesburg

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!