Super 6 Must Watch Shopping Mall Logos That Make Shopping Experience Unforgettable by Tammy Becker

Article published on April 7th 2012 | Web Design

Here are some shopping mall emblems that have become a mark for pleasurable and unforgettable shopping experiences.

1. Mall of the Emirates:

Their trademark is created simply and sophisticatedly. It consists of the corporation name in orange colored straight fonts that are quite easily readable. A small star like symbol accompanies the name that adds an imaginative and artistic air to the emblem. The use of blue and orange colors over a white background keeps this image fresh and makes it one of the best shopping mall logos ever.

2. West Edmonton Mall:

The emblem used till 2010 consists of the three initials crafted creatively. Letter 'W' is created in red colored fonts and letter 'M' is created in purple colored fonts. Letter 'E' is created in small capital face with the adjoining of the two letters. The bright colors and the creative placement of the text make it imaginative and distinct. The new monogram is void of colors; it consists of the same design in tones of gray.

3. The Grand Canal Shoppes:

Located in Las Vegas, this mall is majestic and regal which is reflected in its trademark. The monogram consists of an image of a golden colored lion with wings. The image reflects that the mall is magnificent, royal, intimidating and here to stay. Because the image is enough to convey the mall features, the text is written with simple and straight fonts so that the main focus remains at the image.

4. Wafi Mall:

Also located in Dubai, their emblem reflects the country's unique features. The mall is created to resemble the shape of a pyramid and this shape is also used in their emblem. The golden colored oval case contains three triangular shapes that add a contemporary touch to the traditional shape of pyramids. The text is crafted simply in dark blue fonts that are readable quite easily.

5. Istanbul Cevahir:

This is the sixth largest mall in the world and is located in Turkey. This mall is known for its modern shopping and entertainment experience and that is reflected in its trademark. The emblem consists of a multicolored star on a white background that looks bright and magical.

6. Mall of America:

Located in Minnesota, this is also called MOA or the megamall due to its size. Their brand mark contains the true essence of the country. The emblem is created in white, red and blue colors with the mall name accompanied by stars and ribbons in national colors. The use of national colors and symbols makes it one of the most easily recognizable shopping logos in America.

So there you have some of the famous emblems that have made shopping experience a pleasure and that is reflected in their brand marks.
