Across Edinburgh, the capital of Scotland stands an astronomical castle which still has preserved its Scottish cultural hint of beauty alongside its amazing modern appearance. The temptation of exploring this city must definitely be pinching you. Auld rekey is another name used for Edinburgh but the most authentic of the names used for the glorious city is "the Athens of the north". This name is appropriate owing to numerous facts. The historical palaces of the city stand alongside the modern buildings. The city is laden with gothic churches, Georgian buildings and countless historical museums and galleries. Just the prospect of visiting them is so enchanting. The exciting experience of actually visiting these places can be attained by reserving either an apartment or a hotel in the city for accommodation.

The best thing about Edinburgh is that it is an amazing mixture of the medieval buildings and the modern ones, making the city extremely ravishing and one of its kind. It is all about amazing hills and lush green valleys. The amazing pieces of Georgian and modern buildings adds to the exquisite charm of the city. The pleasure attained by watching such natural beauties through the hotels or apartments in Edinburgh is guaranteed.

The most well-known towns of Edinburgh are the old and new towns, which have been labeled as UNESCO world heritage sites. Other attractive places that are worth seeing during a tour to Edinburgh include: the Edinburgh castle, the Rosslyn Chapel (the one from Da Vinci Code movie and book), Abbey and palace of Holy Roodhouse, Royal Botany Garden and St Giles Cathedral. These are the master pieces of Georgian construction and will be good introduction to the Georgian style of architecture.

It doesn't just end with the medieval things. If you want to see the modern side of Edinburgh, there are always museums and galleries like the Museum of Scotland, The National Gallery of Scotland and the Scottish National Gallery of modern art. Other than these, the shopping malls, restaurants, bars and pubs bring you even closer to the customs and people of the city. If you are shopaholic or are fond of nice food and decent hoteling, the best advice for you is to look for Edinburgh apartments somewhere around George Street, Victoria Street or Princes Street.

Edinburgh has this strong attractive force for people of all ages, of all places and of all interests. Every year the city achieves the honor to host thousands of people from all around the globe during customary festivals like Edinburgh International Festival. The rich culture and history of Edinburgh can also be studied in detail while attending any of the festivals of Edinburgh.

To be on the safe side, it is recommended to make sure that the accommodation is dealt with in advance by booking one of Edinburgh hotels or apartments. You can find economical and expensive apartments, depending on the money you wish to spend. The apartments in Edinburgh have always been cherished for their hospitality and extremely comfortable environment.
