Watches are always acting as crazy gifts and this continues even in these days where most of the people are using their mobile phones for knowing time. With this trend, many women are using watches as a piece of jewelry to show their financial standard rather than as an instrument to know the exact time. Due to the craze women have for watches, most men wish to gift luxurious watches to their lovable women to impress them on their special day.

When it comes to luxurious watches, the popular watches coming in the mind of most of us are the Hublot Watches and the Patek Philippe watches. Watches from Hublot are meant not only for women, but there are also watches for men. When it comes to Hublot watches for women, there are models offered with diamond stones and 18 carat gold case. In addition to this model, there are other models as well made out of costlier materials making them luxurious. Hublot made a mark in the watch industry for more than 30 years ago and it is the first Swiss watch company to fuse precious metals with functional rubber thereby sparking a revolution for aesthetics and material innovation. The brand earned a spectacular success from the year 2004 with the creation of the big bang, which is a multiple award winning chronograph with an elegant and contemporary design.

Another popular luxury watch brand is Patek Philippe and this company came into existence in the year 1839. This company belongs to Geneva and they are the oldest family-owned and independent watch manufacturers. The company was established with ten values being heritage, emotion, service, aesthetics, value, rarity, fine workmanship, quality, innovation, tradition and independence. Revolution was brought about in the watch making industry when Antoine Norbert De Patek and Jean-Andrien Philippe partnered. Their luxury range includes watches made out of diamond and platinum collection. Being luxurious watch, the Patek Philippe Prices are of course higher.

There are companies specially meant for selling watches and their watch category includes not only Hublot and Patek Philippe, but several other luxurious brand watches are being sold and they are also offering services for these watches. In addition to luxury brand watches, they also have a collection of jewelry and they offer quality support with the help of their gemologist, who are professionals in offering guidance to people in purchasing jewelry. Apart from gemologist, they also have watch experts as their sales people in such a way that customers can purchase luxury watches like Patek Philippe without worrying about Patek Philippe Prices.
