The reality show “The Real Housewives of Beverly Hills”™ is one which is totally worth the watch. It is a reality which had been quite a hit among viewers all across the United States. This is a reality television show which revolves around the lives of six housewives in Beverly Hills. The first season of The Real Housewives of Beverly Hills was premiered in the year 2010.

The finale of the first season which was aired the following year in Jan happened to be the highest rated episode of the first season of The Real Housewives of Beverly Hills. There are three seasons of the reality show so far and it happens to get better with time; with each episode getting more intense than the other. The series revolves around six Beverly Hills housewives:

Taylor Armstrong is the housewife who is originally from Oklahoma and moved to Beverly Hills just about eight years ago.

She is a proud mother of 5-year-old baby girl- Kennedy. She is a woman who is passionate about her humanitarian work and also about her successful business. She volunteers at the Family crisis centre and is also the Chief Creative director of an online beauty firm.

Adrienne Maloof is from Albuquerque in New Mexico. The Maloofs™ have a multi-faceted entertainment enterprise. Adrienne along with her mother and brothers comprise this huge “Maloof”™ dynasty which includes Resorts in Vegas.

Kim Richards was a former child actress. She acted in movies- “Escape to Witch Mountain”™ and acted in various television series.

Kyle Richards is Kim Richards’™ sister. Both of them are aunts of the famous hotel chain heiresses Paris Hilton and Nicky Hilton. Kyle too, like her sister, acted in various films and television series in her younger days.

Lisa Vanderpump was a native of London. She lived for a while in Monte Carlo before she moved to California. Her husband is Ken Todd; together they have two children- Max and Pandora.

Camille Grammer tied the knot with Hollywood actor Kelsey Grammer in 1997 and found fame in acting, modelling and dancing ever since. Together they had a production company called Grammer productions and Camille worked as a producer and writer for the company for quite a while. They have two kids; a daughter and a son- Mason and Jude. In the first season of Real Housewives of Beverly Hills, Camille files for divorce.
