A Rendezvous with the Bliss of Sugar Daddy Dating by Asian Sugarbabe

Article published on June 13th 2012 | Dating

Lilliputian girls do not play a game called "Date a sugar daddy". Their games often revolve around 'pretend relationships' with Prince Charming and Cosmonauts. However in reality, Princes are usually hard to find and cosmonauts perhaps, do not pull that much loot.

Once little girls mature into young hot girls, they realize that though dollars cannot buy happiness, yet they certainly make life easier. Some women might hesitate when it comes to dating an 'older' man, but wealthy 50s in the present era is regarded as 35 years old, and let us face it- older men are the ones with loads and loads of cash. Yes, same like Uncle Scrooge that you used to see and adore when you were a little girl. Apart from the obvious financial advantages of dating a Sugar daddy, there are tons of other compelling reasons that make it a bull's-eye dating option for girls, who wish to keep their options open while figuring out what comes next.

Men are held to a number of standards. They are judged by their overall personality, looks, social standing and career, hence, why should not monetary status be an equally accepted qualifier? In case, you have some dead-end relationships and feel as if you have nothing to show for them or in case, any person is giving you goose bumps over the fact that you are searching for a man, who can actually pay his own way, simply whip out this particular article and beat them with the logics mentioned herein.

No one can argue with the below mentioned reasons:

Sugar Daddy has Seen it All:

The Sugary Daddies are mature people, and they are not easily despaired by a Sugar Babe with a skinned knee so to say. While a boy in his twenties would most relatively crawl out the washroom window pane upon learning his Sugar doll is a single mother, Sugar dads are more liable to step up to the plate and render some support, at least monetarily.

Treat Women With Respect and Regards:

These men have ample life experience and they know how a woman deserves to be treated. These men are most desirous in the present dating scene because of the fact that they are refined, know chivalry is not dead and have more poise, and all these features are lacking in most younger than 30.

Exponentially Romantic:

These guys are much more romantic as compared to average Joe, since they experience pleasure from watching their woman's face glowing with surprise and happiness. Moreover, he not just knows what romance is all about, but he has the means to execute whatever romantic ideas he comes up with. Do you remember the last time your young boyfriend flew you from Los Angeles to NYC via helicopter merely for the clam chowder?

The Sugar dads have very little distractions and are much more 'in the moment' than young men. They are monetarily extremely stable and more self-assured. You will ever catch your Sugar dad gazing at another woman while he is with you. You will have his complete attention since he is a gentleman. Your beauty was the key to unlock the door of his heart, but he respects you as an individual as well.
