

Article Side

Cape Town a picturesque vacation spot along the coastline by Manja Jaspers

Article published on July 7th 2012 | Destinations

“Vacations are necessities, not luxuries” And the best part about a Vacation comes much earlier when one starts planning for it. With no shortage of locations spread across Planet Earth, it is always exciting to pick and choose a destination for your next vacation! And one of the most popular choices among the vast majority of people, especially during summer is opting for areas with beaches. As one explores the best location for beaches, without an iota of doubt, Cape Town is bound to be on the top three recommended locations!

Cape Town “ the second most populated city in South Africa, it is famously known as a holiday destination because of its pleasant climatic conditions, well developed infrastructure and natural sceneries. It is an ideal holiday destination during summer for beach lovers “ With different beaches just a few kilometers away and with each beach having its own unique environment, Cape Town is just the right place to beat the heat during summers. As part of promoting tourism in this part of the world and to attract foreign tourists, one can find quite a few holiday accommodations in Cape Town. For a foreign national, new to Cape Town, they might as well book a holiday package that provides holiday accommodation in Cape Town. Making no compromise on Customer Service, Cape Town Holiday accommodations provide several options for accommodation depending on the type of guests. Be it a family vacation or a official corporate stay or a plain getaway trip by local residents, Cape Town has it all.

Hotel accommodation varying from budget hotels to 5 star hotels are available a plenty in Cape Town. And realizing the need to go green, most hotels in Cape Town has educated their staff members and clear instructions are given on water conservation and power conservation methods while at work. “Recycling” is the key factor which is enforced among the employees to promote the “Go Green” consciousness. Not sticking only to the monotonous customer service routine , you can explore various recreational events like “soup sip and bread festival” “ an exclusive occasion in Durbanville to savor the relishing taste of breads and extensive collection of wines. Also, known for its rich cultural heritage, Cape Town has quite a few landmark locations. A few notable places are The Victoria & Alfred (V&A) Waterfront “ famously known for the shopping venues; foreign tourists throng this place to purchase gift items for their families back home. Another attractive feature is V&A is the “Nelson Mandela Gateway”, through which the Ferries and cruises leave the Harbor.

So, anyone planning for a vacation in Cape Town can stay assured that they will have the experience of their lifetime and best hospitality offered in any hotel accommodation in Cape Town. And with special offers made during the stay, every penny spent is worthwhile.

Article Source:

<http://www.articleside.com/destinations-articles/cape-town-a-picturesque-vacation-spot-along-the-coastline.htm> - Article Side

Manja Jaspers - About Author:

The author has an immense knowledge on a holiday accommodation in cape town. Know more about group accommodation cape town related info in his website a <http://leisurehotels.co.za/contact-us/group-accommodation-cape-town>

Article Keywords:

cape town accommodation specials, holiday accommodation in cape town, cape town holiday accommodation, hotel specials cape town

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!