Different Delights from Seville by James Purefoy

Article published on June 30th 2012 | Destinations

Seville is one of the more interesting and bigger towns in Andalusia. There are lots of varied delights that would enthrall the tourists.

Fiestas and Folklore

Seville is full of traditions and folklore that are translated into colorful and vibrant fiestas and festivals. The best way to discover Seville's cultural richness is the springtime celebrations of fiestas especially the Semana Santa (Easter Week) and Feria de Sevilla.

Semana Santa or Easter Week beholds its world renowned colorful and huge processions which take place throughout the week from Good Friday whereas Feria de Sevilla offers the delightful flamenco celebrations with its vibrant dancing, traditional attire and music reverberating throughout the region.

Another attractive celebration in Seville is the Day of Inmaculada where traditional songs are performed by students dressed in traditional medieval attire. These performances take place between the Alcazar and the town cathedral; the following morning, a children's dance performance takes place in the cathedral celebrating the Danza de los Seise. The performing children are clothed in their brilliant and delightful traditional dresses.

Gibraltar trips

One of the more popular tours in Seville is a day trip to Gibraltar. It is an interesting trip that costs only 115 € per person. Tourists would be picked up from their hotels early in the morning to Gibraltar for an up-close viewing of the Rock of Gibraltar. Tour guides would offer interesting and relevant information about the Rock and its history.

Tourists would move on to the well preserved El Peñón National Park to view the lush greenery that is home to many species of flora and fauna. There are special caves known as the "Cuevas de San Miguel" which are natural landscapes in the region. Some of these caves house the famous Gibraltar monkeys.

Doñana tours

Another delightful natural day tours from Seville is the National Park of Doñana outside of Seville. This huge reserved natural park is home to hundreds of plants and trees as well as animals. Nature lovers are given leisure time to linger and check out the natural beauty although the park is too big to see it all in one trip.

Bookings

These short trips can be booked anytime by tourists through the Internet. There are vouchers given to tourists to confirm their excursion bookings which serve as proof of purchase. The voucher must be presented for the specific tour option and can only be used on the designated date paid for.
