

Article published on June 5th 2012 | Destinations

India – the Incredible India! A tourism friendly nation, India has a lot in store for you. Visit here and you get to explore an enchanting array of vacation attractions – the resplendent nature, glorious past, distinguished architectures and rich cultures & cuisines. Nature has taken this beautiful country with utmost care. Salubrious weather all through a year makes it beloved to wanderers. Natural greenery is in abundance and almost everywhere in partitions. With vivid topography, adequate amount of rainfall and favorable weather, rich natural vegetation is found here. Apart from that, its dense rainforests, tropical deciduous jungles and vast stretched grasslands are home to a variety of wild animals, birds and reptilians. In fact, this country is a treasure trove for nature-lovers, allowing them to see almost all facets of nature. And when it comes to see the best nature has bestowed India, plan a Kerala tour, Kashmir tour or trip to somewhere in North East India. These destinations are unarguably naturally rich, and entice travelers with their wealth of natural treasures.

Spiritualism and India have an old-aged connection. Right from Kashmir to Kanyakumari, this country has countless of sacred destinations with religious significance of their own. Visit some of its pilgrimage centers like Amarnath, Badrinath, Puri, Tirupati and Veshno Devi, and you™ll understand why it has been called the ‘Land of Gods’. Being one of the oldest civilizations on earth, India has an astounding past. Many heroic tales of its great kings, inspiring humanity and hair-raising crudity pertaining to its rulers are texted in many books and are famous globally. Every year, thousands of travels visit India to explore its gorgeous past. Some ancient cities like Jaipur, Agra, Delhi, Aurangabad, Jodhpur and Goa have highly tempting historical attractions memories of which can never be vanished away. Magnificent forts, palaces, temples & mosques and numerous ancient monuments in these cities are truly worth exploring if you have some sense of history and cultures.

India is one of a few countries where age-old cultures and ultra-modernization go hand to hand. Modern developments in India are nowhere behind the western world, and this country boasts almost all facilities of today, thanks to the technological innovations and liberal trade policies. Big cities in India like Delhi, Mumbai, Kolkata and Bangalore boast high quality of life with all modern ambiances. With world-class shopping malls, first-rated hotels and restaurants, towering skyscrapers and well-built highways, India is a country of 21st century. Thriving cultures, colorful fests and throbbing nightlife in India™s big metropolises have the temptation of their own.

Nowadays, the country has been promoting tourism at large scales. Various facilities have been established at all major tourist destinations to give the travelers maximum comforts. Many travel agencies offer tour packages to allow travelers a hassle-free and enjoyable holiday experience. Searching online, you find a variety of deals for India tour. Considering your needs and budget well in advance, you can select your most suited deal.

Article Source:

<http://www.articleside.com/destinations-articles/india-a-wondrous-land-with-beguiling-vividness.htm> - Article Side

Aanchal Gupta - About Author:

Hungry Bags is a renowned travel agency offering a vast selection of travel packages like a Goa tour packages, a Kashmir tour package and customized deals for a Shimla tour at highly affordable rates.

Article Keywords:

Goa tour packages, Kashmir tour package, Shimla tour

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!