Bali is an interesting island for tourists for its highly developed arts and culture, particularly traditional and modern dance performances and music, besides its sculpture and paintings. There are specialties in leather and metal working too here for the tourists to collect items of utility and curios. Bali holidays will give a life time happiness to any traveler visiting that place.

Bali is famous for its temples particularly and its villages have at least three temples each installed in their soil. Most of them are water side temples and they include

-Pura Ulun Danu Bratan, the water temple near the Lake Bratan with a number of shrines in it

-Ulu Wahu, another temple at the edge of a cliff, which is nine directional

-Pura Besakih, the Mother temple, which is bigger and at the base of Mount Agung, a volcano, and which is believed to be part of Mount Meru.

Bali tour will also benefit the visitor to bathe in medicinal springs such as Air Banjar near Lovina and Toya Bungkah near Lake Batur, besides visit to a Bali village Trunyan with Bali culture fragrant.

The beaches and sands of Bali are ever attractive and are considered the best places for serene, calm and peace giving spots in the world. All Bali Holidays packages take visitors to many beaches and they include
