Get Secured Home Loan for Emergency Financial Needs by Linda John

Article published on February 7th 2012 | Loans

Property prices are not static, increase or decrease the rate commensurate with the economic indicators. With this the value of home equity also rises and falls. Any loan taken against this equity in the property or assets we have is called secured loan. Home-secured loan as the name recommend uses the home as security.

Many times in our busy lives and demanding we face a situation where our monthly income and bank balance we have, fall short in financing economic restrictions. It could be the mounting debts that need quick consolidation, buying a new car, escaping at the seven star cruises, buying a new boat, getting cosmetic surgery or other medical emergency. We require funds and that are simply not available. Waking up to the harsh reality that the only thing that can save us is the solution for a loan, lenders look to. Lenders, driven by concerns about earnings and security of the loan amount request a warranty. Find comfort with home ownership by the borrower are happy to lend against home equity available.

Guaranteed home secured loan are gaining popularity with both borrowers and lenders. These loans are available to UK citizens who have a home of their own and are aged between 18 and 65. Lenders provide some such vast quantities as guaranteed mortgage loans. The lenders are comfortable giving sums that match the value of the collateral. If security is a high enough and that the borrower has good credit history can get loan of Â£ 1 million easily. The repayment term of the loan is also very long. The borrower can repay the loan from 3 to 30 years and coupled this with the fact that a guarantee is offered drastically lowered interest rates charged on such loans.

People with bad credit find it easier to acquire a secured home loan and can be used to improve their credit ratings. The application procedure for a secured home loan, it is quite easy and can be done from the comfort of your home or office. Most lenders now offer an online application process, saving time for both parties. A borrower can also apply through a telephone, visiting the lenders office or speaking with a representative of the lending company to visit.

Any lender, no matter how you may feel comfortable with the guarantee, will go for the credit checks of borrowers. He will use the credit rating agencies, pay stubs, employment history and the balance of the bank to have a clear idea about its financial. The whole process of granting a mortgage-insurance will take between 2 to 4 weeks. During this time a property consultant will visit the borrower to value assets. Signature of the legal contract between the borrower and the lender will most probably be the last step before the loan is delivered.

Getting a proficient legal counsel to interpret and recognize the fine prints of the credit agreement will be in the best interest of the borrower. Since then, it's too risky to blindly believe a lender is in any case, driven by economic interests. So search in internet regarding secured loan UK and also about secured loan lenders as well and get the valuable knowledge and before taking secured home loan.
