

Article published on February 1st 2012 | Outdoors

Rajasthan is a wonderful place which is known for its rich heritage, culture, traditions, rituals, belief, tourists' attractions etc. It's a land of colors, everywhere everyone will be in a colorful dress with traditional jewelries. Here the place is known for its amazing forts and for their interesting stories. The landscape is known for its rich culture and desert which showcase the immense beauty it includes the wealth and crowned heads of the place till now as the heritage of the ground. It encompasses with temples, historical monuments, carved complex and all. All these things depict the actual picture of India.

The number of places which attracts tourists in large numbers are known as Albert Hall Museum, Amer Palace, City Palace, Chittorgarh Fort, Dargah Sharif, Shrinathji Temple, Fateh Sagar Lake, Pushkar, Havelis of Jaisalmer, Hawa Mahal, Jantar Mantar, Lake Pichola, Sahelion Ki Bari, and Umaid Bhawan Palace. All these places offer the tourists to enjoy each and every aspect of royalty. Apart from the major attractions tourists who want to have some adventure in the same tour then they must plan to visit the number of wildlife sanctuaries, reserves and fulfill the desire of enjoying all jungle activities. There are various places where wildlife can be seen easily. The lush greenery of the place attracts the tourists a lot. India Rajasthan travel offers the nature and wildlife lover a chance to capture the fantastic moments of Jungle leisurely.

The number of wildlife sanctuaries for which tourists may go for are Bhensrod Garh, Darrah, Desert National, Jaisamand, Keoladeo Ghana National Park, Kumbhalgarh, Mount Abu, Ranthambore National Park, Sariska Tiger Reserve, etc. All these places are comprises with numbers of animals and different species which is rare so one can take as many as pleasure they want to take.

Out of all these sanctuaries Ranthambore is one of the sanctuaries of India which consist large population of lions and tigers. Along with tigers one can also watch other species like 300 species of birds, 30 species of mammals, spotted Deer, Sambhar, Nilgai, Blackbuck, wild boar, sloth bear, mongoose, Indian hare and porcupines. Predator species of animals in Ranthambore National Park include jackals, Jungle cat, Leopard and Tigers. Lizards and many species of snakes including cobras, kraits etc. One can take pleasure by jeep safari and watch all these species.

As like the Ranthambore wildlife sanctuaries, the Bharatpur bird sanctuary is also famous for the habitat and migratory birds. So people can capture those beautiful birds in their camera for lasting impression. Tourists always use to say that Rajasthan wildlife tours are very amazing and breathtaking.

One must try other India tours also to make sweet memories with loved ones so just pack your bags to have fun and new experiences.

Article Source:

<http://www.articleside.com/outdoors-articles/exciting-and-surprising-wildlife-tour-of-rajasthan.htm> - Article Side

Khushboo - About Author:

Author Bio:-

Khushboo Singh is an eminent analyst and writer in Travel & Tourism related topics. She has authored many books on tour guide for a India Rajasthan travel and a Rajasthan wildlife tours.

Article Keywords:

India Rajasthan travel, Rajasthan wildlife tours, India tours

You can find more free articles on Article Side. Sign up today and share your knowledge to the community! It is completely FREE!