So you're ready to lease out your property and you want to find the best property management company in the Minneapolis area. You've done your homework and you know what your goals are. You have your list of expectations of a company and want to make the best decision.

Well, that's where Trade Wind Properties comes in. We represent excellence in Minneapolis property management. We don't strive to just be good at what we do, we strive to be the best and set ourselves apart from the competition.

Property Owner Services

We can help you with whatever type of property you have, whether it's a single family home, condo, townhome or duplex. We know that everyone's needs are different and will vary management services upon each individual's situation, goals, and budget. That's why we offer a few options for management services. We offer the following plans: tenant location only, the full service management plan 1, and the full service management plan 2. You can find more details on the differences on our website. The full service management plan 2 has the most comprehensive coverage, but you decide as the property owner what works best for your investment. You choose and we'll take care of it.

Tenant Services

Your tenants will find our website easy to use and make it easier for them to get the services they need. We offer online payment because we know in this day and age with all the activities we have, convenience is important. We also offer maintenance requests online. The more accessible the maintenance requests are for the tenant, the more likely it is that the tenant can get report it as soon as possible. There's no need to wait on us to be available during business hours to take a maintenance request. We also make it easy for your potential renters by providing an online application for their convenience.

Customer Satisfaction

For anyone looking for Twin Cities property management, selecting Trade Wind Properties will be a decision that will help you protect your asset and meet your goals. We have a very responsive, professional and well trained staff to help attend to your needs. We offer our customers one of the best experiences for property management MN by giving our clients personal attention, flexibility with service plans, and quick responses in regards to any issues or questions that come up.

Real Estate Sales

Should you decide in the future that you'd like to sell your rental property you can turn to us for real estate sales services. It's a great transition to choose us to sell your property. We've managed it. We know the rental history, and maintenance history. We're familiar with your house, and offer you the same great service you've come to expect. We know your property is your investment and we will work to make sure you get the best return on your investment.

If you're in the market to rent your property, then get started with the best of the Minneapolis property management companies. We will make sure we meet your needs and expectations. So contact us and see why we're the best in the area.
