Daily Horoscopes Based on Zodiacs and Numerology by Renesmee

Article published on May 16th 2012 | Religion

Quickly scanning the column of daily horoscopes just before leaving for work is a routine for many people. It is not a conscious routine but a compelling habit. No matter how late we are, a quick read through our daily prediction for the day keeps the spirits up. A lot of times, they are just bang on, and sometimes completely off the truth. But that doesn't matter! We still keep reading it everyday.

The actual reason is that it's fun! We never sit down to seriously think about how true the predictions were. But people who are inclined to subjects like astrology, numerology, and tarot card reading take these predictions very seriously. These disciplines are sciences and those interested in them can look at related educational study programs available.

Zodiac Predictions

The daily horoscopes that we need in the newspaper or receive as an email or an SMS are mostly based on zodiac signs. They are easy to read, crisp two liners. Zodiac signs categorize people in 12 different signs based on their date of birth. Each sign is assigned a symbol that reflects the personality of people born under that particular sign.

Numerology Predictions

Another way of providing daily predictions is according to numerology. Ruling number for a person is calculated by adding up the digits in his date of birth till you get a single digit value. Very few newspapers publish numerology-based horoscopes on daily basis. Mostly, it is a weekly feature that is more elaborate than the daily predictions. Those who have a keen interest in it can look up numerology number meanings online. There is a lot of information available on how to calculate your ruling number and what are the key traits of the people belonging to a certain number. To get a daily horoscopes corresponding to your ruling number, you can subscribe to any of famous numerologist's website.

Compatibility Charts

Just like there are compatibility charts available for different zodiac signs, numerology compatibility charts are also available. It doesn't matter which of the two you follow. Both these charts try to make people aware of their compatibility levels with the people who belong to a different set of traits. The purpose of sharing them with people is to inform them about what differences can come up in their relationships. If they are informed, they can be prepared to deal with these differences and maintain harmony in their relationships.

The idea behind bringing daily horoscopes to people is also no different. Predictions are shared so that you can be ready to take on to your day positively. It will help you deal with situations in better manner and be more calm and sensible in dealing with troublesome things.
