Ever wonder why the things that happen in your life do happen? And why things that we think would take normal course happen with a lot of twists and turns? The answer is simple and known to all; it's only that we sometimes blind ourselves from reality.

Our Rashi or sun sign majorly determines the course our life takes. To describe in detail, our Rashi or sun sign is what we are endowed with when we are born. Rashi is the star that determines all the actions of our lives. The Rashi that we belong to is determined according to the time and date we were born on. Moreover, there are two ways or say streams of signs under which your sun sign is determined; the Indian astrology and the western astrology.

Through our rashi, we can know about the different aspects of our life according to the position of the stars and the planets. Rashi also tells us about the different characteristics of our personality as related to the strongest star or planet connected to the time of our birth. Say, if we were born between in December, our sun sign will be Sagittarius and we will be ruled by the planet Jupiter.

This all comes under the science of astrology which has been accepted as a valid science subject all around the world, with genuine calculations done in respect of the present and probable positioning of the various planets and stars to predict the past, present and future or anything possible.

According to astrology there are 12 sun signs or Rashi, namely, Aries, Sagittarius, Taurus, Scorpio, Leo, Virgo, Gemini, Cancer, Libra, Pisces, Aquarius, and Capricorn. The various planets rule these sun signs and endow each individual during the time of their supremacy with their characteristics. Moreover all these Rashi are segregated under 4 clusters of elements such as water, air, fire and earth.

Horoscopes are predicted daily, weekly, monthly or yearly, whatever the requirement is according to the movements of these planets.

These horoscopes predicted by experts in the science of astrology are generally correct and to the effect. These accurately predict the coming situations and scenarios in anyone's life so that a person is prepared beforehand to face any challenge or happy times as predicted.

Moreover, a detailed account of what lies ahead in a new born child's future can be predicted and astrological compatibility of each of the above mentioned sun signs, with each other, can be foretold.
