Have you ever heard of hidden cameras? Or have you thought what the actual uses of these hidden cameras are? Do you have an opinion that these can be used only for a specific purpose or specific reason or by only a specific people? Normally we have a opinion that the hidden cameras are used only by the people who want to checkout or catch their counter part's activities or to catch red handed the cheating of a spouse, or it is used in malls and big stores to catch up with any shop lifting or theft or it is used mainly by the detectives. There are number of reasons, for people to use these hidden cameras, which we won't even expect. Over a survey it was found out that these cameras were normally used by person to have a check over his cheating wife, by placing few hidden cameras anywhere in the house.

Yet another use of the hidden cameras is their role in checking up with the baby sitting process. The nanny may not be taking proper care of your kid, or she might be lazy enough to feed your kid properly or she will be abusive to your kids, or she may be stealing your things, or she is not up to mark in cleaning. Of course, all these reasons cause anxiety, and tension among the parents, and there has to be a surveillance over these things. Hidden cameras can be placed inside the home to have a look of your kids, as to what they are doing, while you are away from home, and both of the parents are working, and it also proves to be a boon to have a glimpse of your teen age child's activities.

The hidden cameras placed at home can work efficiently, to avoid a housebreaking; the camera tucked in can harmonize your system by giving ears and eyes. A well organized security system will not be able to view or hear of what's going on inside your workplace or home, but a mini hidden camera when placed at a high dealing place can inform you more. Few of them come up with audio also, but they may be prohibited at few places or areas. Make certain to check before employing it.

Hidden cameras can be used at the business place or offices to have a check over the employee's arrival and departure time or they have a view if they suspect any staffs fidelity. They can even be placed in small shops, to check against any stealing or to over view the staff's work. At Bank it is useful to catch the culprits. To handle from the positive note, hidden cameras can be used to record all your funny moments with your friends, relatives or to recollect few memorable moments of different functions or events and many more occasions. It is very easy to place the hidden cameras; it can be kept inside a toy, radio, or clock at homes, or in offices inside a sign board, or emergency lights, to catch the suspects.
