When it comes time to pop the big question, youâ€™ve already got enough on your mind. Naturally, you have to find the perfect ring, but when you begin your search youâ€™re probably thinking that the engagement ring is going to be the easiest part of the whole process. It wonâ€™t take long, however, to figure out that this isnâ€™t necessarily true. Engagement ring shopping doesnâ€™t have to be a totally stressful experience, though, and the jeweler you choose can have a lot of bearing on that. Here are a few tips on finding the best jewelry stores in North Carolina (though these same bits of advice can be used to help you find the best jewelers in other areas, as well.)

The best jewelers in North Carolina will offer a few basic standardsâ€”and theyâ€™ll tell you about them upfront (or at least be very open with the information when you ask the questions.) The most important things to look for when searching out the best jewelry stores in Greensboro, North Carolina, are as follows:

Are they open with information?

There should never be any hesitation or double-talk what-so-ever when it comes to answering your questions with regard to engagement rings. Look for a jewelry store that has a knowledgeable staff thatâ€™s comfortable answering your questions as well as transparent regarding the certification of their diamonds, return policies, quality guarantees, etc.

How is their selection?

An engagement ring is no small purchase. And itâ€™s important to remember, as well, that this commitment is no small deal for her, either. The woman you love will be wearing this ring every single day for the rest of your lives together, so there are some elements of both style and practicality which must be considered. While a large selection of engagement rings might seem a bit overwhelming at first, the more options you have, the more likely you are to locate the perfect ring. There are also some jewelry stores in North Carolina which will allow you (with professional guidance, of course) to design your own engagement ring. This process is kind of fun, and the result is a one-of-a-kind diamond ring that sheâ€™ll cherish forever.

Whatâ€™s their return policy?

An engagement ring is a very intimate and important purchase, and there is a significant amount of stress lifted when you know you have the option of returning the ring in the unfortunate case that she just really doesnâ€™t like the style or setting. Most jewelry stores in North Carolina allow for a 30-day return policy, provided that your diamond jewelry is in the same excellent condition that it was in when it left the store.
