To help clients buy better quality diamonds, qualified and experienced gemmologists at Hearts of London have prepared a comprehensive diamond education guide which is available online at their website for quick reference. The guide talks about the key characteristics (such as the 4Cs- Cut, Carat Weight, Colour and Clarity) that need consideration when buying a quality diamond online or offline.

Personal Jewellery and Gemmological Consultations

Understanding the apprehension and reluctance majority of clients have in transacting online, Hearts of London welcomes all the clients at their Hatton Garden showroom.
