Most of us love watches and when it comes to designer watches, they are regarded as a status symbol, while some treat them as a symbol of personality. Designer watches are regarded as high-end personal accessory that are designed by an independent designer, whose image appears on the brochure of the product. However, nowadays, this term is used for indicating high-quality watches manufactured by some of the top watchmakers all over the world namely Breguet watches, Hublot watches, Patek Philippe watches, etcâ€¦

When it comes to Breguet, the name is popular for luxury watches and the manufacturer belong to France. The company came into existence in the year 1775 and it was founded by Abraham-Louis. Breguetâ€™s clients include some of the popular personalities like Sir Winston Churchill, Queen Victoria, Napoleon Bonaparte, Queen Marie-Antoinette and Louis XVI and the company is a true pioneer in the technology of watch making. Breguet watches can be easily identified due to their unique blue pommehands, quilloche dials and coin-edge cases. Breguet collections are categorized under different types like Reine De Naples, Type XXI, Type XX, Marine, Heritage and Classique in such a way that watch lovers can begin their collection with one watch under each of these categories.

Hublot is also a popular name when it comes to luxury watches and the manufacturer of this watch belongs to Swiss, which is a country popular for its watches. The company came into existence in the year 1980 and it was established by Carlo Crocco. Hublot Watches are classified under different categories like king power, classic fusion, big bang tutti frutti and big bang. As from the name the big bang tutti frutti is meant for women and the watches under this category are offered in different colors in such a way that women can make a selection that matches well with their attire.

There are watch dealers these days dealing with extraordinary collection of premium watches of some of the leading manufacturers. Every time piece sold by these dealers are accompanied by authentic, numbered warranty supported by the manufacturer for a minimum of one full year after the purchase has been made. These dealers are also backed by world-wide network of trained and skilled watchmakers, who are employed by manufacturers for offering support to their brand. These credentials are an assurance to the purchaser that the timepiece will ever maintain its appeal and original qualities.

So, carefully select a dealer and enjoy the luxury appearance of your designer watches for the years to come.
