Article published on January 5th 2012 | Travel

Cairns is a popular travel destination in Far North Queensland, Australia. Cairns serves as a starting point for people wanting to visit the Great Barrier Reef and Far North Queensland. Some of Cairns tours include snorkeling, white water rafting, sailing, skydiving, fishing and sightseeing. Cairns is also known for its nightlife, parties and dinner cruises. Another benefit is that attractions in this area are within very close proximity to each other. Island Day tours, Bungee jumping, scenic rail tours and skydiving tours are some of the most popular Cairns tours. A tour from Cairns to Cape Tribulation is one of the most popular of Cairns tours.

Whitsundays in Australia has seventy-four beautiful islands that delight tourists. Some of the popular Whitsunday tours include snorkeling, scuba diving, hiking through the forests and camping. In addition, crocodile safaris, sailing, picnics and cruises are some outstanding Whitsundays tours. Airlie Beach and Whitsunday tours are known for a grand tour of the world heritage listed Great Barrier Reef.

A tourist or traveler can opt for standby tours which are a last-minute option if time and other constraints permit. These standby tours are available everywhere in the world. Standby tours allow you to board a flight without prior booking. Low rates and refunds on cancellation are key features of standby tours in Australia. These popular tours enable you to explore Australia for less money. Trips to the Great Barrier Reef, Daintree rain forest and snorkeling tours are some popular standby tours. Standby tours are a great way of utilizing spare seats for airlines and other modes of transport. The number of seats can vary from two to ten. The prices for these seats vary, depending on the number of passengers. During off season, a large number of vacationers avail of discounted tours and standby tours on a regular basis.
