The unique features of culture and geography of Rajasthan make it a breathtaking paradise for the tourists. One can see the cultural features of this famous tourist destination of the world in the form of temples, palaces, havelis, forts and many more. The mesmerizing desert beauty of Thar and the fine Aravali range represent the geographical beauty of the region. One cannot resist visiting the splendid mount Abu and this hill station will not only provide you the fascinating experience of honeymoon but also the exquisite beauty of Dhillwara temples. The exotic Jain architecture of the regions is really spellbinding. Among the principal attractions of the region, Thar Desert holds the prominent place and the tourist has the opportunity to go to the deeper depths of the desert, interact with different kind of people and have the authentic cuisines in these belts. One cannot enjoy Rajasthan if the camel experience is missing. Camel, principally known as the ship of the desert is a wonderful animal that does not get tired so soon and helps the tourist to go ride it for longer hours. One cannot miss the camel safari if the individual wants to explore the vast desert belts.

Exploring the different villages of Rajasthan is really a fine experience in case the individual is having camel safari. One can see magnificent forts, palaces, wildlife and many more riding on the back of the camel and the experience is really fascinating. One can enjoy everything by the camel safari be it the sand dunes of Jaisalmer or the desert national park of the region.

One cannot miss the desert circuit when it comes to seeing Rajasthan and the three principal cities that come in this circuit are Jodhpur, Jaisalmer and Bikaner. Apart from the exploration of the vast desert in the belt, one also has the chance to visit the fascinating Mehrangarh fort in Jodhpur. The Junagarh fort in Bikaner, the Jain temples and sonar qilla of Jaisalmer present the royal feel of the belt. One cannot miss the camel breeding farm in Bikaner and this is one of its kinds in the country. Among the wonderful places to visit in Rajasthan, one has the opportunity to visit the capital city called Jaipur, also called the pink city and is the place of mesmerizing forts and palaces. The mighty magnificence of Amber fort and the combination of the Mughal and RAJPUTANA style of architecture has made this fort a monument with a difference. Rajasthan is truly the pride of the east and on having the glimpse of the frescoes in the Shekhawati region; one reminds the tourists of Scotland. One can find the royal blood flowing in the kings of the belts and they belong to the Suryavanshis and the Chandervanshi clans. There is also a tale of prophecy made by Lord Sri Krishna as far as the kingdom of Jaisalmer is concerned. Indeed, Rajasthan is the land of valor and pride; the monuments, forts and palaces are a testimony to it.
