Krk is one of the most popular holiday destinations along the Adriatic not just because of the fantastic hotels that you find here and all the adventure that you get to enjoy. It is also popular because of Camping Zablace and Naturist Camping Bunculuka, two of the finest camping Krk locations on this island. Spending time at campingplatz Krk is an experience that not too many get but it is something that you must consider if you are planning to visit Krk.

The campingplatz Krk at Camping Zablace has two parts to it. The first part is more traditional where you need to make a reservation. This part of this camping Krk location is a stone's throw from the beach and a few steps and you are into the sea. You can have a great time frolicking in the sea or enjoying adventure sports. And when you come back to your camp in the evening you have loads of entertainment options available.

The second part of Camping Zablace is about 100 meters from the sea and is a campingplatz Krk that is made for the more spur of the moment vacationer planners. This area of this camping Krk location doesn't need any reservation. There are spots to pitch tents and if space is available you can pitch your tent too. This part of the camp is obviously more popular with the young people that come to Krk with their friends. This second part of Camping Zablace also has some green oases that offer perfect shades from the sun.

The campingplatz Krk at Bunculuka is a nudist camp and is for people that have no inhibitions shedding their clothes in public. If you are looking for a vacation where you can truly get close to nature then this camping Krk vacation is what you should be aiming at. This camp is famous for its Spanish brooms, acacias and pine forests. Located close to Baska, Bunculuka can accommodate up to 1,200 guests.

The Naturist camp at Bunculuka has 400 spots, 200 for campsites and 200 for parking. There are various sports facilities available here - mini golf, volleyball and tennis. Among facilities you have three sanitary facilities, restaurants and snack bars, shops, vegetable and fruit stalls and a newsstand.

The proximity of the beach is what makes camping Krk at Camping Zablace and Bunculuka so special. You can spend the entire day on the beach and have a totally fun filled vacation. There is something for your group when you are traveling as a family and there are other entertainment options for you when you are traveling with friends. No matter what form of entertainment you want, your campingplatz Krk can offer that.

Camping Krk gives you the perfect opportunity to have a more natural vacation. You will not even miss a hotel when you stay in the campsite. Come to the campingplatz Krk at Camping Zablace or Bunculuka and you will have a holiday to remember, the stories of which you will never tire of talking about.
