After traveling to Vietnam, escape the buzzing motorcycles and head westward to the sleepy village of Mekong Delta. Here you can be appreciative for the watery landscape and the lush greenery all around. Get up close and personal with adventure by swimming to the Phu Quoc Island where pearly white sand beaches await you. Get prepared to visit the beautiful yet astonishing 120 km long coastline of the Ha Long Bay. This Bay is famous for adding zest to your sea adventure and is surely worth every minute spent. Your Vietnam holiday would be incomplete if you fail to pay a visit to the Mui Ne beach located on the eastern coast. Besides golden sands and warm beaches, Mui Ne is the just the thing to help you unwind and be you. Expect the unexpected and get enticed at the country's Northern provinces.

Things to Do

Breathe and grasp the essence of the cultural, intellectual and spiritual air of Vietnam that refreshes every soul known to it. On your Vietnam holiday, appreciate the tombs, pagodas, temples and palaces at the imperial capital, Hue. Don't miss the excitement that Hanoi has to offer during your Vietnam tour. For delectable culinary delights, try the popular pickled fish and a refreshing beer at the bia hoi junction. For awesome tailored clothes, visit Hoi An where at least three hundred to five hundred tailors work day and night to create mesmerizing designer wear. As these clothes are inexpensive yet trendy, be sure to grab a couple more on your way home and present them to your loved ones. After enjoying your vacation in Vietnam, there's no doubt that you will be asking for more.
