Article published on August 23rd 2012 | Travel

Are your body and mind calling out for something cooling, something fun and something relaxing? If yes, then it's time for you to splash your vacations with some exciting trips to water parks with wild and unique water slides and water rides. Plummeting down these water slides is the riskiest and craziest fun you can ever have. And nothing can surpass the excitement and enthrallment created by Wisconsin Dells with some of its best water parks in the world. The place is often termed as the king of water parks in America and trust me it definitely lives up to all the expectations. It shelters the best resorts with the gigantic and twisty rides, especially built to mesmerize and amuse you. The fact that the story of the Great Wolf Lodge resorts family was inceptioned in Dells demonstrates the ability of the place to provide you the best.

The African theme of the Kalahari Resort and Waterpark makes it one of the most unique and enchanting options in the Wisconsin. Filled with indoor, as well as outdoor slides, the waterpark can never fail to surprise you. The speed of Extreme Rush, whirlpool created by Swahili Swirl, wildness of Wild Wildebeest and the twists and turns of the Anaconda creates such a magnificent experience that you would not want to leave the place.

The craziness of Wisconsin Dells, WI does not end here. The place has much more than you can ever imagine. The blasting geyser at over 160 feet in height at the Mt Olympus Water and Theme Park is itself a symbol of the secrets the place has in store for you. The 2012 Lost City of Atlantis is a monument when it comes to the water slides of the world. The wrath and fury of the Poseidons rage presents a true representation of the levels of madness you can achieve in that place. Other rides such as Hucks Lagoon, Magnum Mat Slides and Thunder Lightning are also worth experiencing.

Even the Noah's Ark Waterpark of WI Dells has carved its impression in the hearts of thousands of people. America's Most Thrilling Water Coaster does complete justice to its name by generating unsurpassed thrill and excitement in the people. You have to try Black Anaconda, Time Warp and the vertical slides, Scorpion's Tail for determining your own appetite for craziness, risks and dangers. You must also try the water slides and rides available at other Wisconsin Dells hotels like the Chula Vista Resort, Atlantis Waterpark, Great Wolf Lodge and Wilderness on the Lake for entering into a completely new world of incitement and intoxication. So, be ready to dive into the sensational pool of hysteria and madness amidst the wilderness of the Wisconsin waterparks.
